SEPTEMBER 29 – Feast of the Archangels

The original SUPER HEROES!

ST. MICHAEL, whose name means “Who is like God?”, brings justice and strength as he guards God’s People in the Book of Daniel. He is credited with winning the battle against Satan.

ST. GABRIEL, whose name means “Strength of God”, seems to be the key messenger, explaining visions (to Daniel) and announcing future events to Zechariah (regarding the birth of John the Baptist) and to Mary regarding the Birth of Jesus.

ST. RAPHAEL’s name means “God Heals”. He is credited with the healing of Tobit and the success of Tobit’s journey. St. Raphael is the patron saint of travelers and the angel of happy meetings and Catholic singles. O Raphael, lead us towards those we are waiting for or those who are waiting for us!

We are encouraged to pray to the Archangels for their guidance and assistance:

Pray to St. Michael in times of temptation

Pray to St. Gabriel when discerning God’s Will

Pray to St. Raphael in times of sickness

GILMAN COMMUNITY BLOOD DRIVE: Tuesday, October 3rd from 12:00pm – 6:00pm at Ss. Peter & Paul Church Hall. You must be in general good health. ALL donors are required to present qualified ID before donating. To make an appointment: call Karen at (715) 447-5712
