St. Paul of the Cross – October 20

From his childhood, Paul dedicated himself to prayer and the service of Jesus and Mary. One day, after receiving Holy Communion, Paul had a vision of himself wrapped in a black tunic with a white heart and cross on top. Inside the heart were three nails, in memory of the nails in Jesus' hands and feet and the words "The Passion of Jesus Christ". The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to him and handed him the tunic. Paul became a priest and founded the Passionists religious order.
