St. John of Capistrano – October 23

Born in Capistrano, Italy, John studied law and was appointed governor of Perugia. During war with a neighboring town, he was imprisoned which caused him to change his life. St. Francis of Assisi appeared to him in a dream and told him to become a Franciscan. When he was released, he became a Franciscan monk. He followed the example of St. Francis and became a great preacher, speaking to thousands of people. He prayed to the Holy Name of Jesus and led an army of peasants and commoners against the Ottoman empire. Because of this victory, John of Capistrano is often called the “Soldier Saint”.

St. John of Capistrano, help me turn to the Holy Name of Jesus for protection!
