

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION FORMATION ANNOUNCEMENTS

CCD: Catholic Christian Discipleship

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us the Beatitudes - those teachings that will really make us happy. Jesus teaches that those who are poor, hungry, weeping or persecuted for the faith are blessed in God's eyes. Does that mean that those who are wealthy, happy and contented are not blessed? No. We can enjoy the things of this world as long as they do not lead us to sin. The things of this world cannot save, they may be only temporary, and they must be used wisely and in service to the greater community.

Our Holy Land group had Mass on January 17th on the Mount of the Beatitudes, outdoors looking down upon the Church of the Beatitudes. Jesus taught outdoors. The message of Fr. Bala included a reflection on the good that can come from the bad that enters our lives. Just like in the Beatitudes, we think being poor, hungry, or persecuted are bad things in our lives. They can lead to a greater trust in God, and our dependence on the help of others.
