Emma Dachel celebrates First Holy Communion this weekend with her parents Brock and Rhonda Dachel, her teacher Sarah Cegler and the St. John congregation. Emma has studied hard for this sacrament and she has learned a great deal. Holy Communion is the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ received during the Eucharistic Celebration at Mass. It is the reception of Jesus truly present under the consecrated forms of bread and wine. In Communion, we are united with Jesus and with one another and we become more like Jesus. Any Baptized Catholic who is free from mortal sin and has fasted an hour from food and drink may receive Communion. Jesus established this sacrament at the Last Supper, surrounded by his twelve apostles. The Eucharist is the source of our Christian life and it is the perfect prayer that will increase our faith.
