Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 10, 2018

WILL of GOD

People were suspicious and even hostile toward Jesus because he did not conform to their expectations. Their resistance to Jesus was fueled by the suggestion from the religious leaders that he was out of his mind and/or possessed by Satan. More importantly, though, the Gospel reminds us that those who believe in and seek to follow Jesus are in a new relationship with Jesus and with each other. We are brother and sister, mother and father to one another.
