Fourth Sunday of Easter

May 12, 2019

GOOD SHEPHERD

On the walls of underground corridors and cemeteries where early Christians hid from their Roman persecutors, the most ancient representation of the risen Lord was the image of the good Shepherd. Figures of a man bearing a lamb on his shoulders gave countless martyrs courage at times of great danger. A shepherd leads and protects. Two thousand years later who are our “good shepherds”? Heroic men and women who make advances at great personal cost? Older, wiser people who watch out for us and teach us by their lives? Who is Christ for us today?
