St. Matthew, Apostle & Evangelist (September 21st)

Matthew was a Jewish tax collector. The other Jews despised Matthew because of his job. Tax collectors collected money for the Romans, who oppressed the Jews, and so he was an outcast.

But Jesus saw beyond Matthew's job. He saw into Matthew's heart, and he knew that Matthew would become His disciple. Jesus said two simple words: "Follow me." Jesus' words reached into Matthew's soul. His fellow tax collectors marveled to see him leave his well-paying job behind to follow a poor preacher.

The Pharisees, Jewish religious experts, were shocked. "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" Jesus overheard their words and said, "Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do." Jesus came to heal sinners, just as He had healed Matthew. Matthew became one of Jesus' Twelve Apostles. He followed Jesus all throughout Galilee and saw how Jesus healed the blind and the sick.

Matthew preached about Jesus' life to the Hebrews and then traveled as far as Persia to preach the Gospel.

St. Matthew, help us to follow Jesus!

Thank You!

A special THANK YOU to ALL who contributed to the Special Collection for 2021 Disaster Relief last weekend. Our cluster of parishes collected $560.00 for humanitarian relief and support to those impacted by Hurricane Ida.
